

Equity for deaf people

ASLIA NEW SOUTH WALES
Australian Sign Language Interpreters' Association

Demand Control Schema (DC-S) - What is it?

Including NAATI presentation on revalidation and news on the INT Project

Julie is a practising Auslan/English Conference level (English to Auslan) interpreter, with over 30 years experience in the field. She holds a Bachelor of Education (LOTE - Auslan) from LaTrobe University and an MA in Auslan/English Interpreting from Macquarie University. Julie was formerly the co-ordinator of the VDEI/ASLIA Vic mentoring program for staff who interpret in classrooms within Victoria. Julie has delivered several workshops and training courses.

Saturday, 29th April 2017

Canberra Institute of Technology
Room C03 - Bruce Campus,
Vowels Crescent, Bruce, ACT

9:00am to 10:00am

NAATI presentation on revalidation

EVENT CANCELLED

Presented by Julie Judd

...University.
...the interim Chairperson of ASLIA and President of ASLIA Victoria, Julie is committed to enhancing the quality of interpreting provision throughout the country.

This interactive workshop will outline the theoretical components of DC-S and the application of the Schema to challenges experienced by participants in their daily practice.

This workshop will provide interpreters with the opportunity to discuss and explore ethics, professional conduct and approaches to decision-making in relation to their practice.

Register for this workshop at:
asliansw.org.au/register

ASLIA members: $50
Non-members: $60

(Includes lunch, morning & afternoon tea)

Registration closes: 22/04/2017

Questions? info@asliansw.org.au

Please refer to website for a CIT campus map

This is a Deaf Society and ASLIA NSW partnered event

Participants will receive the following points towards NAATI revalidation:
$3.1 Translating and Interpreting Skills Development, 40 points

Venue provided by:

Supported by:

For registration or for more information: asliansw.org.au/register